

Recall of Nestlé P'tit Pot baby food in France does not impact India

Subsequent to a product recall in France, there have been a few queries to check if this recall affects India. We wish to reassure that India is not affected.

The facts : On 29th June, 2011 Nestlé France had initiated a precautionary recall of one batch of Nestlé P'tit Pot Recette Banana baby food. This was an isolated case involving one jar. No other batches or countries are affected by this recall. The safety and quality of our products is a non-negotiable priority for us.
